Budgeting Now 2010

Budgeting in a Post Recessionary Environment

Whether you are in full agreement with the recession being over or not, effective budgeting is not an easy task in this economic environment. Your ability to more accurately budget and forecast through these uncertain times ahead will keep your organization financially strong. Gateway Management has developed a training designed to educate and prepare your organization with budgeting techniques specifically designed for a post recessionary or unclear economic environment.

Improved budgeting leads to better decision making. Learn new budgeting strategies that work in this economy, including:

- Enhanced data collection techniques
- Adaptive processes for changing financial landscape
- Rolling forecasting and budgeting
- Responsive to market conditions
- Alignment of budgeting to strategies

Budgeting in a Post Recessionary Environment is a timely course and discussion on how successful organizations are weathering the storm and better positioning themselves for growth by upgrading their budgeting system throughout the organization. Along with an improved system allocating financial resources, this program will help you develop, manage and report your budgets.

- Budgeting processes for today
- Data driven decision making
- Flexible strategies for uncertain times
- Capabilities to forecast and react
- Tools for better budgeting
