IFRS Framework

Preparing for International Financial Reporting Standards

International Financial Reporting Standards have been implemented by most major foreign markets, while the SEC has embraced a convergence plan between IFRS and GAAP. The concept of unified, systematic financial reporting processes utilized globally will streamline financial operations moving forward.

To effectively train and implement IFRS into your organization, it is recommended to incorporate a stakeholder learning plan now. IFRS Handbook is a comprehensive course that includes:

- IFRS Framework and Standards
- Specific Requirements and Statements
- IFRS and GAAP Convergence Plan
- Impact on National and Global Capital Markets
- Benefits and Drawbacks Moving Forward

IFRS Handbook is a timely course and framework for organizations to prepare stakeholders for a new system of financial reporting. Along with an in-depth analysis of requirements and standards, this program will provide a foundation for future IFRS users.
