

eLearning Development

- Creating and developing learning programs delivered online
- Translating internal training ideas into executable eLearning modules
- Assistance in learning strategy development and deployment
- Employee engagement and buy-in to training programs
- Full implementation of LMS, eLearning and online training

Internal training is important for the long-term success of any organization. eLearning offers a continuous training opportunity that can be used organization-wide. Gateway Management provides the technical knowhow in an effective solution for developing customized eLearning, on any topic, and for integration into any learning management system.

e: solutions@gmi-solutions.com

p: 510-984-3620

f: 510-380-7377

Training and eLearning Solutions

High performing organizations utilize training and learning programs to maximize their most valuable resource. Effective employee development should be embraced as a continuous effort that constitutes an organization's commitment to performance. Talent driven organizations repeatedly outperform competitors. In order to maintain this advantage, leading organizations have implemented successful training programs designed specifically for their organizational needs, market demands and strategic objectives. Gateway Management has extensive experience in the development of learning programs, implementation of training objectives and execution of training modules.

Gateway Management offers solutions for organizations interested in improving the effectiveness of internal training programs. Our solutions are designed to help you engage your audience, deliver powerful training tools and utilize new technologies on market. Whether for an individual, department or entire organization, we have powerful training and learning solutions for your organization.

Gateway Management's solution for eLearning Modules: Developing and Delivering eLearning Programs is a simple step by step process for developing effective eLearning.

e: solutions@gmi-solutions.com

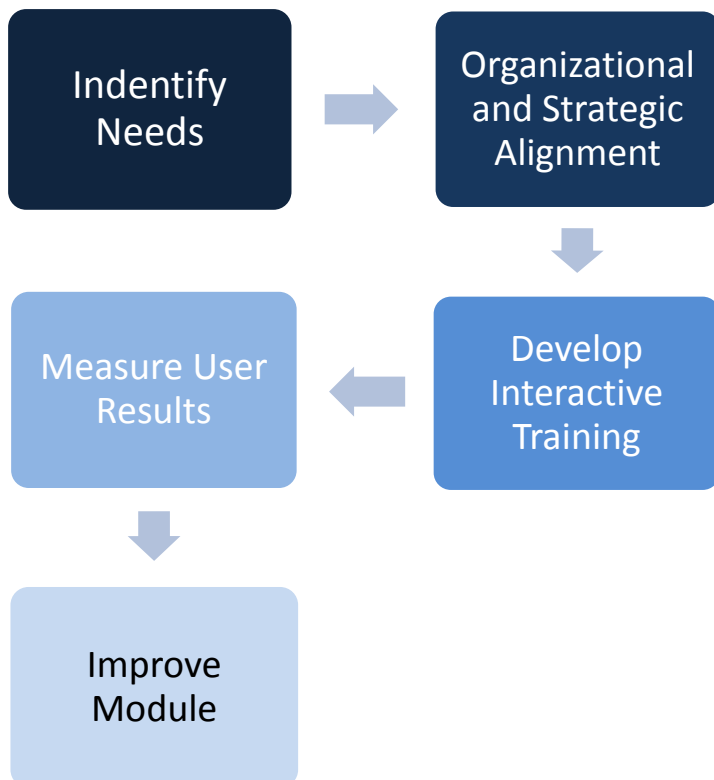

p: 510-984-3620

f: 510-380-7377

Customized eLearning Development

eLearning Modules: Developing and Delivering eLearning Programs Gateway Management's core business is the development and delivery of innovative training courses. We incorporate best learning techniques with new eLearning technologies to engage clients in a dynamic learning experience. Our skill set aligned with your internal training objectives can be combined to implement a highly impactful training module. Gateway Management works with organizations on translating training strategies, employee development programs and continuous improvement objectives into comprehensive eLearning modules.

eLearning Module Development

e: solutions@gmi-solutions.com

p: 510-984-3620

f: 510-380-7377

eLearning Modules: Developing and Delivering eLearning Programs will ensure you have the most effective trainings possible. A Gateway Management SolutionTeam member is available today. Please contact us to learn more about how this solution can benefit your organization.

Phone: 510-984-3620
Fax: 510-380-7377
Email: jpowell@gmi-solutions.com

Pricing

Gateway Management has developed this solution to cost-effective, while at the same time being customized to fit the precise specifications of our clients.

$2495

Up to 1 hour mastered eLearning module (includes content development support, recording and editing)

$1495

Per additional hour mastered eLearning module (includes content development support, recording and editing)

Inquire

Call or email us to schedule an appointment to discuss the exact requirements of your organization. Working with our extensive network of knowledge experts, we will determine the best solution to address your organization's needs. Following this assessment, Gateway Management will provide a draft proposal for your review.

Gateway Management's solution for eLearning Modules: Developing and Delivering eLearning Programs is a simple step by step process for developing effective eLearning.

Step 1

Discuss objectives for eLearning program and desired outcome

Step 2

Develop framework and specific content for interactive training course

Step 3

Record, edit and master course material

Step 4

Test course material with sample of target audience

Step 5

Create final eLearning module(s)

This framework will allow you to focus on the initiatives and content needed to meeting your training objectives. Gateway Management will help you incorporate best eLearning practices and develop the eLearning module into a great end product.